Companions,

As we celebrate the season (Christmas, Hanukah, Festivus, Kwanzaa, 1st Day of Noodlemas, etc.) please remember the reasons behind this time of year. We are here to celebrate friendship, family, togetherness and being kind to each other.

This year has been unlike any other in recent years. We have been kept apart from loved ones and each other. As we approach the New Year let us fervently pray that life as we are used to will return soon.

You are the reason Our Fraternity is lauded and I look forward to working for you in the coming year. Keep up the compassion and togetherness, for yourselves, and Humanity.

Fraternally and Zealously,

Arthur J. Ahrens, III
